DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED VOIR DIRE QUESTIONS

Defendant, Mario Levis, through counsel, respectfully submits the following proposed voir dire questions, which we request the Court pose to prospective jurors:

1. Tell us about any experience(s) you or someone close to you have had regarding losing money as a result of investing in a bank stock or mortgage lender stock in the past several years.
2. Tell us about any experience(s) you or someone close to you have had with mortgages or mortgage lending, whether it involved applying for a mortgage, obtaining a mortgage, refinancing a mortgage, or working in the mortgage industry.
3. Tell us about any experience(s) you or someone close to you have had regarding foreclosure, foreclosure proceedings, or mortgage modification. If you wish, we can discuss your response at sidebar and outside the presence of the rest of the panel.

4. Tell us about your experience and/or comfort level in mathematics and finance, including the highest level of training or education you have received in either field.

5. Tell us about your experiences with English as a second language, including whether you or someone close to you speaks English as a second language.

Respectfully submitted,
